

University
of Regina
International

English Communication
&
Skills Development Program
2021

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The intensive English Communication and Skills Development Program is offered in 2021, presented by the University of Regina, through the Department of Global Training Initiatives and the English as a Second Language Program. The program offers robust blended teaching and learning methods to students around the world. Students will engage in a learning community to advance English communication skills, build up personal and academic skills and experience Canadian vibrant cultural aspects, in the comfort of their homes.

All courses and activities are designed to be applicable to all disciplines, and students will engage in language practice through select themes and tasks and/or projects. Themes may include, but not limited to, intercultural communication, career preparation and soft skill development, and Canadian academic culture, etc.

Speaking – effectively expressing and supporting an opinion, providing an oral summary or paraphrase, elaborating on ideas, preparing and delivering a researched presentation, conducting discussion groups, seminars, panels, or debates.	Listening – understanding the gist and details of academic talks, taking clear and effective notes, engaging in active listening, understanding vocabulary in context, listening critically.	Reading – distinguishing when to skim, scan or infer, synthesizing information from multiple sources, engaging in active reading, reading critically, understanding vocabulary in context.	Writing an application letter, developing a succinct summary or annotation, accurately paraphrasing, quoting and citing sources, elaborating on ideas, completing a research paper, developing academic posters, etc.
---	--	--	--

Proposed Program Information:

Duration : 40 hours Cost: $600 CDN	Total of 3 Weeks
--	-------------------------

Note: Program dates can be flexible and course offerings can be arranged based on students' schedules accordingly.

Each of the program options include the following modules:

- ✓ Synchronous + Asynchronous English Communication Courses
- ✓ Personal and Academic Skills Development Workshops
- ✓ Interactive Social Activities
- ✓ Online Learning Support to enhance English conversational skills and make new friends with University students

Program cost is based on per student and includes program development and management, orientation, learning progress evaluation (pre & post – tests), tuition, course materials (electronic version), Certificate of Program Completion, and support services (online).

*Program fee is based on a minimum number of 10 students.

Program Instructors

The University of Regina English as a Second Language (ESL) Program was established in 1971 and it offers a Language Canada accredited program that gives students the English language skills needed to succeed in academic studies or in their chosen professional field. All of our instructors for this program are highly educated in teaching English as an additional language with extensive professional experience to provide high quality programs designed to meet specific needs.

Contact us!

Ms. Li Liu
Global Training Initiatives
Tel: +1 (306) 585-5260
Email: Li.Liu@uregina.ca

University of Regina
3737 Wascana Parkway, Regina, SK
Canada S4S 0A2

University
of Regina
International

